NOTES

25X1

【BERLIN: East German harassment of civilian traffic to and from West Berlin continued through Sunday evening, despite the conclusion of the meeting of the West German Free Democratic Party on Saturday and the departure of President Heinemann and Chancellor Brandt yesterday morning. The East German action is the most severe of the three harassing episodes experienced within the past two months, with delays ranging from seven to more than 15 hours at all checkpoints. There is considerable public resentment in West Berlin over the East German action and disappointment at the failure of Allied protests to prevent recurrences. There is also strong sentiment in favor of Allied cancellation or postponement of the four-power advisory meeting scheduled for 2 February.
